[TA-W-29,974]*VIC Manufacturing Co. Minneapolis, Minnesota, Negative Determination on Reconsideration

The United States Court of International Trade (USCIT) granted the Secretary of Labor's motion for a voluntary remand for further investigation in Nelson v. Secretary of Labor (94-10-00630).

The Department's initial denial for the workers of Vic Manufacturing Company, Minneapolis, Minnesota, issued on August 15, 1995 and published in the Federal Register on September 2, 1994 (59 FR 45711), was based on the fact that the workers provided a service and did not produce an article.

The petitioners request for reconsideration was dismissed on September 19, 1994 and published in the Federal Register on September 27, 1994 (59 FR 49260). The Department's dismissal was based on the fact that the application contained no new substantial information which would bear importantly on the determination.

On remand, during the Department's investigation, it was determined that the TAA petition filed on behalf of the workers at Vic Manufacturing is invalid. The petition does not meet the statutory time requirements of the Trade Act of 1974. The TAA petition filed on behalf of the workers at Vic Manufacturing was dated May 9, 1994. (See AR p. 2.) The date of worker separation for Tony Nelson, petitioner number 1, was January 29, 1993, and for Raymond Menard, petitioner number 2, November 11, 1992. The third petitioner was within the scope of consideration. However, a valid petition must be signed by three affected workers. Mr. Nelson and Mr. Menard were separated from employment with Vic Manufacturing more than one year prior to the May 9, 1994, filing date. Section 223(b)(1) of the Trade Act of 1974 provides that a trade adjustment assistance certification may not apply to a worker whose separation from employment occurred more than one year prior to the date the petition was filed. The Trade Act does not give the Secretary authority to waive this statutory limitation.

Conclusion

After reconsideration, I affirm the original notice of negative determination of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance for workers and former workers of the Vic Manufacturing Company, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 26th day of January 1996.

Russell T. Kile,
